By design, a motion offense is supposed to be free form and interpretive. That does not mean it should be random or hap-hazard. Here are some quick hitter entries you can use to enter into your motion. A quick hitter is a play with one pass and maybe one or two cuts that are designed to get your scorer an open, early shot.

Another type of motion offense is the 3-out, 2-in offense, and it's a great offense for big teams with more than one highly skilled post player. Three guards play on the perimeter, while the two posts play on the blocks or in the high post. In most versions of 3-Out Motion, the post players cross screen for one another, then flash to the ball.
