Lauren Bacall in THE BIG SLEEP from STEVE HAYES By Myself Lauren Bacall

Lauren Bacall was one fantastically talented actress, IMO. She could do comedy, tragedy and anything in between. She and Humphrey Bogart had one of the most loving, admired marriages in Hollywood at the time (or any other). Her acting was top rate and so was her skill as a writer. This memoir didn't hold much back, if anything.

The ambition Lauren Bacall exuded was second to none, never mind that she was a nervous wreck, something she was surprisingly honest about. I'm sure there wouldn't be many like her who battle through knock backs and nerves as she did till she reached her goal. But what a name dropper! And everyone was her "best friend".
