School refusal affects up to 5% of children and is a complex and stressful issue for the child, their family and school. The more time a child is away from school, the more difficult it is for the child to resume normal school life. If school refusal becomes an ongoing issue it can negatively impact the child's social and educational development. Psychologist Joanne Garfi spends most of her working life assisting parents, teachers, school counsellors, caseworkers, and community policing officers on how best to deal with school refusal. Now her experiences and expertise are available in this easy-to-read practical book. Overcoming School Refusal helps readers understand this complex issue by explaining exactly what school refusal is and provides them with a range of strategies they can use to assist children in returning to school. Areas covered include: \u2022 types of school refusers \u2022 why children refuse to go to school \u2022 symptoms \u2022 short term and long term consequences \u2022 accurate assessment \u2022 treatment options \u2022 what parents can do \u2022 what schools can do \u2022 dealing with anxious high achievers \u2022 how to help children on the autism spectrum with school refusal

Hinata Asahi is the happiest girl you'd ever hope to meet. What's most remarkable is that she's kept that upbeat personality after having been the victim of multiple kidnappings. Ever since her new homeroom teacher, Shiro Asou, moved in next door, Hina's all but forgotten her traumatic past-after all, she's in love with Asou-sensei! But when your dad is as wealthy as Hina's is, the threat of kidnapping doesn't go away...and it's about to catch up with Hina one last time... -- VIZ Media

"Explains why and shows how to differentiate assessments, assignments, and instruction for English language learners according to English language proficiency level and other background factors"--

This ninth issue of Now is anchored by the longest story featured in the magazine to date: "Misguided Love," a 40-page autobiographical tour de force by Texas artist Raquelle Jac. Ping-ponging among relationships, hospitalizations, internet "fame," international travel, sex, romance, and trauma, Jac's dense, obsessive pages read like a manifesto, announcing the arrival of a remarkable new voice in comics. This issue also features Now debuts from Hartley Lin (Young Frances), James Harvey (Masterplasty), and Emil Friis Ernst (Doctor Murder), as well as work from Now regulars Keren Katz (The Academic Hour) and Noah Van Sciver, who homages Basil Wolverton's cult favorite, science-fiction hero, Spacehawk.

This volume investigates the washback of the IELTS Writing test on English for Academic Purposes provision.

Repetitive, predictable story lines and illustrations that match the text provide maximum support to the emergent reader. Engaging stories promote reading comprehension, and easy and fun activities on the inside back covers extend learning. Great for Reading First, Fluency, Vocabulary, Text Comprehension, and ESL/ELL!
